

IN THE SPECIFICATION

Please replace the paragraph bridging pages 10 and 11 of the instant application with the following:

--- Similarly, data may be conveyed, which programmable ~~automata~~ controllers do not usually use, such as sound or video. This information may also be utilized by the application itself (a video capture module connected to a video processing module) or may be used by external applications or by services linked to the automatism (for example remote maintenance of an automatism installation).---
